

30 Tips to Crush Your Next Job Interview

Before, During, & After the Interview

Before the Interview

Plan ahead. These 10 steps get you started.

1

Research the company.

Know their mission.

Know their values.

2

Research your interviewer.

Check LinkedIn. Find common ground.

Study the job description.

Match your skills to what they need.

Prepare 3 success stories.

Real results. Real impact.

Rehearse your answers.

Confidence comes from
practice.

Know your weaknesses.

Find the potential benefit of each weakness.

*Get sleep &
look the part.*

Dress 1 level
above the role.

Prepare smart questions.

What does success look like in this role?

No last-minute disasters.

Check your tech (for virtual interviews).

Plan your route.

Arrive early, never on time.

During the Interview

10 tips for when you're
in the moment

First 5 seconds matter

Eye contact. Strong handshake. Smile.

2

Speak
clearly.

Slow down. Breathe.

3

Actively listen.

Don't just wait to talk.
Never check your phone.

Use the STAR method.

Situation. Task. Action.
Result.

Show enthusiasm.

Energy is contagious.

Sell yourself.

But don't sound
desperate.

Avoid negative talk.

Never badmouth
a past job.

Share your story honestly.

Answer “Tell me about yourself” with a story.

Keep it short. No rambling.

Respect the other person's time. Brevity shows clarity of thought.

10

Watch body language.

Sit up. Lean in.

Stay engaged.

After the Interview

Follow up is crucial.

1

Ask about next steps.

Show you're interested and proactive.

2

Send a thank-you note.

Do it within 24 hours.

Email or handwritten.

3

Mention something specific.

Prove you paid attention.

Persistence matters.

Follow up if you don't hear back.

Reflect on what went well.

And what didn't.

Keep applying.

Never wait on one company.

Stay positive.

Every interview is
practice.

Keep networking.

Opportunities come from people.

Trust the process.

The right job is coming.

Believe in yourself.

If you don't, why should they?

REPOST

Follow me

Nathan Crockett, PhD

for daily tips

www.NathanCrockett.com